Expiration of Proposition 30 Taxes

© 2016 School Services of California, Inc.

- Proposition 30, approved by state voters in 2012, established higher temporary tax rates for the sales tax and the personal income tax
  - The sales tax rate increase generates about $1.5 billion annually and is set to expire at the end of 2016
  - The high-bracket income tax hike generates about $6 billion to $8 billion annually and is set to expire at the end of 2018
- A coalition of labor, education, and health organizations is leading the effort to extend the high-bracket income tax rates
  - On May 11, 2016, the coalition announced that they were submitting more than one million signatures to local elections officials to qualify their initiative for the November 2016 ballot

Tax Extension Proposal

© 2016 School Services of California, Inc.

- If approved by state voters, the coalition's proposal would:
  - Extend the Proposition 30 income tax rates through 2030
  - Generate between $5 billion and $11 billion to the General Fund annually
  - Require up to $2 billion to be provided to support the Medi-Cal program, after costs to fund Proposition 98 and other state programs are funded
- How will this affect funding for schools and community colleges under Proposition 98?
  - According to the LAO, Proposition 98 funding could increase by "a few billion dollars"
    - If we are under the right test for Proposition 98
    - Even so according to the current projections, the Governor insists there will be no extra money to spend
